STATUS CONFERENCE

APPEARANCES:

Plaintiffs: Michael Bloom, Julie Loftus, and Will Manske

Defendants: Matthew Eslick, Andrew Parker, and Abraham Kaplan

PROCEEDINGS:

The Court held a status conference to discuss the parties' suggestions (Dkt. Nos. 104, 105) for a substantial completion date for document discovery. Plaintiffs suggested April 7, 2023 as a workable date for substantial completion of document discovery. Defendants advised that while they preferred April 21, they could comply with the April 7 date and that they have had the opportunity to review the additional discovery discussed in their March 2 letter.

Defendants requested that any substantial completion deadline include a carve-out for productions responsive to document requests served in the future. The Court reiterated that parties could still serve focused document requests after the deadline. The Court will issue a modification to the current scheduling order.
